GIRLS' CHARGES AND ALLEGES BLACKMAIL

Declares That, Suspecting It, He Had Hidden His Valet in Room Where Alleged Offense Was Committed.

Raymond Hitchcock's excuse for taking two young girls to his of Dec.17, 1906, is that he was trapping them in order to checkmate a blackmailing scheme. The rest of his defense is an alibi.

The accused comedian took the stand as the first witness in his own behalf this afternoon in the criminal branch of the Supreme Court where gomery was second and Royal Tourist third. The time, 2.05 3-5. he has been on trial for two days on the charge of mistreating Helen Montgomery was the only horse in Von Hagen and Elsie Voecks. Just before this his chief counsel, Max and in the race the Hildreth Steuer, gave the first intimation that the public had heard of the true essense of the defense.
